AISEN-MORGAN WEDDING

At the home of Dr. and Mrs. William G. Rogers on Prospect street Wednesday evening Rev. Canon Ault officiated in marriage Dr. George S. Aiken of Waukegan, Ill., and Emily Morgan, daughter of Mr. F. W. Rossburg of Seattle.

The bride was given into the keeping of her husband by Dr. W. S. Rogers. Miss Irene Aiken and Dr. J. H. Waddell were bridesmaids and best man, supporting the bride and groom.

The marriage was performed in a bower made in the corner of the drawing room. Very dainty it was, with quantities of pink roses and ivory-tinted chrysanthemums and lacy maidenhair fern.

The rooms were exceedingly pretty, decorated as they were with pink roses, pink sweet peas, cream-colored chrysanthemums, and long trailers of smilax and ferns of the finest varieties.

The bride, who is a very pretty girl, was most becomingly gowned in a cream-colored tulle over silver tissue, and carried a shower bouquet.

It was a small, pretty home wedding. After a brief honeymoon in the country Dr. and Mrs. Aiken will go to Waukegan to live, where a handsome home awaits them. Mr. Aiken is a brother of Mr. W. O. Aiken of Palo Alto.

The following were the guests who witnessed the ceremony: Miss Irene B. Aiken, Mr. and Mrs. John Gullid, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Forbes, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Bicknell, Miss Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Erdman Baldwin, Prof. and Mrs. A. L. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Corbaley, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Winkley, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Starrit, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bailey, Mrs. J. C. Turner, Miss Gertrude Turner, Mr. Robert G. Mist, Miss Harriet Forbes, Miss Maria Forbes, Dr. J. H. Waddell, Mr. C. D. Lufkin, Mr. John J. Walsh, Miss Evelyn Scott, Miss Mabel Freeman and Miss Dorothy Guild.

MRS. DAVID DOWSETT ENTERTAINS

ABOUT OUR FRIENDS

The following clipping is of especial interest, telling of the continued popularity of Princess Kawanakoa and also of Mrs. Arthur Marix, who held such a charming social niche in local society:

"One of the happiest reunions of the winter season at Coronado was at a pretty luncheon given at her home Monday by Mrs. Arthur T. Marix, wife of Col. Arthur T. Marix, U. S. M. C. Although an informal affair and one which was simply appointed, the luncheon was a noteworthy gathering of women of society and the navy set who have been close friends for a period of years.

Mrs. Marix's guests included: "Princess David Kawanakoa of Honolulu; Mrs. Pennington, Mrs. George C. Bagley, Mrs. Edmond Pillsbury, all of Minneapolis; Miss Archibald, Mrs. Whitley, of Salt Lake City; Mrs. Frederick Wilson, of Spokane; Mrs. E. S. Bogert, wife of Medical Inspector Bogert, U. S. N.; Mrs. R. M. Cutts, wife of Major Cutts, U. S. M. C.; San Diego Union, March 7.
